1. Rate whether courses offered are relevant to the Program

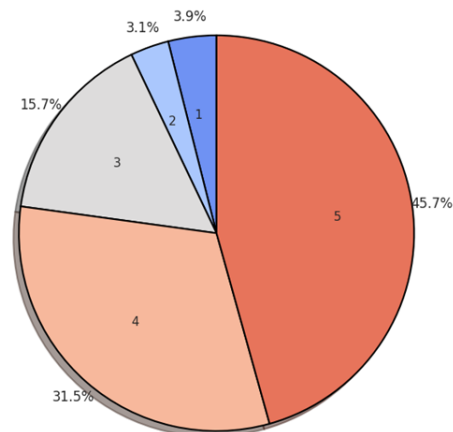

1. Rate whether courses offered are relevant to the Program (SGTCoP)

The majority of SGTCoP students at SGT University feel that the courses offered are relevant to their program, with nearly half (44.88%) giving the highest rating of 5 stars. While a significant portion also rated the relevance as 4 stars (25.98%), a smaller but noticeable number of students gave lower ratings, suggesting some areas for improvement in aligning course offerings with program goals.

2. Practicals/Labs are given equal importance

Most students at SGTCoP, SGT University, feel that practicals and labs are given equal importance, with a significant majority (45.67%) rating them 5 stars. While a smaller portion gave lower ratings (1 and 2 stars), a substantial number (31.5%) gave a 4-star rating, suggesting overall positive sentiment towards the balance between theoretical learning and practical application. The data indicates a generally favorable view, although room for improvement exists based on the smaller percentage of lower ratings.

2. Practicals/Labs are given equal importance (SGTCoP)

3. The practicals/lab experiments enhanced understanding of concepts of theory

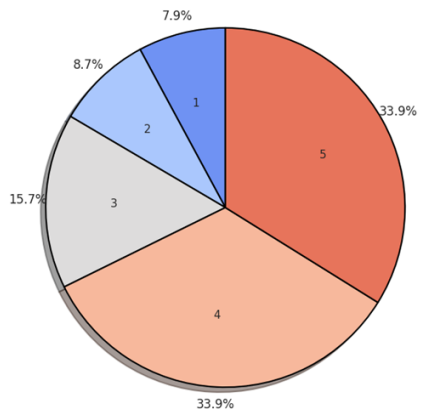

The practicals/lab experiments enhanced understanding of concepts of theory (SGT)

Most students at SGTCoP, SGT University found that the practical lab experiments significantly helped them understand the theoretical concepts, with a large majority (77.95%) rating them 4 or 5 stars. While a smaller portion of students gave lower ratings (3, 2, or 1 star, totaling 22.05%), the overwhelmingly positive response indicates that the labs are generally effective in enhancing learning.

Sr.	Context	Student Feedback	IQAC Recommendation	Action Taken
1	Exam Structure/Schedule	Students find sessional exams more effective and less stressful than unit-wise internal exams.	Consider reintroducing sessional exams to enhance preparation and reduce stress compared to the unit-wise format.	As per PCI norms, formative assessment is recommended alongside two sessional examinations.
2	Teaching Quality	Structured notes from previous methods were more effective in aiding comprehension and retention.	Reassess new teaching methodologies and incorporate student feedback to refine and enhance teaching practices.	Structured notes, along with innovative teaching practices, should be implemented to enhance conceptual understanding.
3	Teaching Methodology	Heavy reliance on PowerPoint presentations makes it difficult for students to follow and retain content.	Complement visual learning through PPTs with concise, comprehensive notes to balance understanding and engagement.	To actively engage students, PPTs along with visual learning methods are recommended.
4	Question Pattern in Examination	Students suggest including more objective-type questions in exams to enhance understanding and focus.	Reassess the examination pattern to incorporate a balanced mix of objective and descriptive questions.	Question paper to include balanced mix of objective and descriptive questions.
