The MOU shall be effective and enforceable from the date of authentication by both the Parties. The MOU shall be valid for a period of 12 months. Before the expiry of the MOU, in case either of the parties do not notify within 10 days in writing to the other that they wish to rescind from the MOU, the MOU shall be automatically extended for a further period as per agreed terms in between the Parties to the present MOU.

It may, however, be open to either of the Party to terminate the MOU by giving the other party a notice period of 10 days. However, both the Parties will meet any residual obligations in connection with the present MOU, notwithstanding its termination.

3. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Neither Party shall be liable for any negligent of wrongful acts, either of commission or omission, chargeable to the other, unless such liability is imposed by law. This MoU shall not be construed as seeking to either enlarge or diminish any obligation or duty owed by one party to the other or to a third party.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Each Party shall retain all right, title, and interest in its works, creations, and inventions, including all intellectual property rights therein (collectively "IPR Rights"), and nothing herein is intended or shall be deemed to be a transfer, license, release or waiver of its IPR Rights. Either party may use the name, registered trademarks, service marks, logos, insignia, or any other proprietary designation (collectively the "Marks") of the other Party or its products or services with the other Party's prior written approval, however, nothing in this MOU shall be deemed, construed or interpreted as granting to either Party any right to use any of the Marks, products or services of the other Party. While using the said Marks, the party which uses the said Marks shall comply at all times with the current version of the applicable mark and logo guidelines of the other party without any fail.

5. AMENDMENT

Any modification, amendment, or waiver of any provision of this MOU shall be effective if, but only if, in writing and signed in person or by a duly authorized representative of each party against whom enforcement of such modification, amendment or waiver is sought.

6. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION:

This MOU shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the Republic of India. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Gurugram.

7. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

The status of the parties under this MOU shall be that of independent contractors. No party shall be authorized to waive any right or assume or create any contract or obligation of any kind in the name of, or on behalf of, the other or to make any statement that it has the authority to do so. Nothing in this MOU shall be construed as establishing a partnership, joint venture, agency, employment, or other similar relationship between the parties hereto.

8. ASSIGNABILITY

This MOU shall not be assignable or otherwise transferable by a party without the prior written consent of the other party.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any and all differences and disputes whatsoever arising between the parties shall in the first instance be resolved mutually between the parties and in the event of a non-resolution the matter may be referred to arbitration to a person jointly appointed by the parties as per the law relating to arbitration in India and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties. The arbitration proceedings shall be held in Gurugram.

10. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Non-Profit Cost Compensation: Surveying India will operate on a cost-recovery basis for logistical and staff deployment expenses, providing a detailed breakdown of direct operational costs to SGT University. This ensures a non-profit approach to our collaborative activities.
