Excursion Trip Report: Faculty of Mass Communication Students to Jaisalmer

From February 24th to February 28th, the Faculty of Mass Communication organized an exhilarating excursion trip to Jaisalmer for its students. The journey aimed to provide students with practical exposure to cultural exploration, journalistic opportunities, and team-building activities.

The trip commenced on February 24th, as students embarked on a scenic road journey to Jaisalmer, immersing themselves in the diverse landscapes of Rajasthan. Upon arrival, students were greeted with the majestic sight of the Jaisalmer Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, which served as the backdrop for various learning experiences throughout the excursion.

Over the course of the trip, students participated in a series of interactive workshops and seminars conducted by renowned journalists and communication experts. These sessions covered a wide range of topics, including reporting techniques, storytelling in journalism, and the role of media in cultural preservation.

Additionally, students had the opportunity to engage in practical activities such as on-site reporting, photojournalism, and documentary filming, allowing them to apply their theoretical knowledge in real-world settings.

Furthermore, cultural excursions to iconic landmarks such as the Patwon Ki Haveli and Gadisar Lake provided students with insights into the rich heritage and architectural marvels of Jaisalmer.

Overall, the excursion trip to Jaisalmer was a resounding success, fostering experiential learning, cultural appreciation, and camaraderie among the students of the Faculty of Mass Communication.
